Similarly, it is prohibited to modify the building's interior in any way, for example, to paint walls, remove carpets, etc.

8. A strict ban on smoking and any handling of fire applies for the duration of the Event. The Organiser is entitled to impose a contractual penalty of CZK 50,000 for every discovered case. The Organiser's right to payment of the contractual penalty does not exclude claims arising from damages.

C2. RULES FOR THE EXPOSITION AND THE EXHIBITION AREA

1. The Exhibitor undertakes that its Exposition shall comply with the project presented to and approved by the Organiser, i.e., the Exhibitor guarantees that it shall realise the Exposition in accordance with the submitted Application, on which basis the Exhibitor was accepted to participate in the Event. If the Exhibitor wishes to change the form of the Exposition after the submission of the Application, such a change is possible, but only with the Organiser's consent. If the Organiser does not approve the proposed change to the Exposition, then the variant set forth in the Application, or the last approved change, applies.
2. If the Exhibitor's Exposition does not comply with the form approved by the Organiser, then the Organiser shall be entitled to request the removal of the Exposition, or parts thereof which are not in compliance, and at the same time the Exhibitor is obliged to pay the Organiser a contractual penalty of CZK 50,000. The Organiser's right to payment of the contractual penalty does not exclude claims arising from damages.
3. No Exhibitor's Exposition may cover another Exhibitor's Exposition.
4. The Exhibitor must maintain the Exhibition Area in such a way that neither the adjacent presentations nor the running of the Event is restricted. No modification of the installation area may restrict or otherwise damage other Exhibitors. A restriction must not be caused by the construction itself, or in any other way, for example, by excessive noise, odour, excessive light, or artificial fog (smoke), etc.
5. In the case of Exhibition Areas found in the section in which the pre-built construction (so-called panel grid) is located, the Exhibitor's Exposition must respect the height of the Expositions in the adjacent Exhibition Areas. Only the Organiser can allow an exception.

C3. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS RELATING TO PROMOTIONAL MATERIALS

1. If the Exhibitor does not supply the aforementioned materials by the date stipulated by the schedule of the given edition of the Event, which forms part of these Conditions as Appendix No. 2, then the Organiser has the right not to include the presentation or advertisement in the printed material; for other cases involving the use of materials which the Exhibitor failed to supply, the Organiser has the right to create them, even without the given Exhibitor's consent.
4. The Organiser reserves the right not to include the supplied materials in the catalogue due to limited capacity, or for ethical or technical reasons.
5. Due to technical reasons, the Organiser is entitled to make minor graphic changes to the supplied materials. At the same time, the Organiser is entitled to proof-read the aforementioned text, in both language versions.

C4. OPERATIONAL SECURITY DURING THE EVENT

1. The Event's custodial service supervises the running of the Exhibition Premises and visitors' behaviour; however, it is not responsible for the security of the Exposition, or for the exhibited objects, which must be supervised and protected against damage or theft by the Exhibitor; an Exhibitor may want to arrange its own insurance in advance for such cases, see Section B.5, Paragraph 4.
2. The Organiser shall ensure that the Exhibition Premises' outer housing is guarded by a security service outside of the Exhibition's opening hours.
